Briefly describe the book:

Jack has a special pig teddy named D.P (Our Pig), and one day his step sister throws it out a car window. He gets run over. Jack and the new pig toy of his travel to the land of the lost to return D.P to the land of the living.

Discuss what you particularly liked about the book:

My favourite part was when Jack and C.P (the christmas pig) are in the wastes of the unlamented and are with blue bunny and broken angel, being chased by the evil loser. I like it because it has a truly detailed picture by Jim Field and lots description as well.

Mention any dislikes about the book:

I have no dislikes about it.

Would you recommend this book, and if so, for whom?

Compare to other similar books you have read:

I recommend the christmas pig to kids from years 4 and 5. It is similar to 'A series of unfortunate events' by Lemony Snicket, in a few ways.
