Book Review

Book Title: The Bookshop girl
 Author: Sylvia Bishop
 Genre: Adventurous

My star rating: ★★★★★
 My name: Megan Martin

Briefly describe the book:

There is this girl called Property and she lives in a family who owns a bookshop. The thing is she can't read. When the family reads in the newspaper that Albert H. Montgomery is retiring from the famous Montgomery Book Emporium, they enter the competition. They win and move in. But will her family be their on their own?

Discuss what you particularly liked about the book:

I liked that they got to sleep in a room that was their choice. Like example... Jungle room, Beach room (etc.) Also I liked that it was very adventurous every page, it was so detailed.

Mention any dislikes about the book:

I didn't like that there is this really annoying person who won't leave them alone. Also in the book I didn't like that the girl Property couldn't read, but she was afraid to tell her parents.

Would you recommend this book, and if so, for whom?

Compare to other similar books you have read:

I would recommend this book to somebody who likes adventure books. I can't really compare this book to another book, as I've never read another book like this.
